

Requirements for Enrolling With LIFE Literature

1. If a church has not yet enrolled:

- a. Only the head pastor can enroll the church.
- b. The pastor needs one piece of identification. (eg: national identification card, passport)
- c. The pastor will need the document that shows he is pastor of the church. (The office can determine whether or not the document is valid.)
- d. If the pastor wants to give another person in the church an authorization to come get the books, that person must come with the pastor to sign the form. He must also bring his identification card with him.

Note: If the church is already enrolled, here's what you need.

- e. Record of what you took the last time you came.
- f. One piece of identification (eg: national identification card, passport)
- g. The Customer Card for LIFE Literature (the little blue card)

2. If a group within the church needs material:

- a. In this case, it's the church that must enroll. Therefore, the pastor gets material from the LIFE office, then the group can get these materials from the pastor or from the person the pastor gives authorization. The group must give the pastor a report concerning how the books and brochures are being used; then, the pastor can give LIFE Literature a good report for the church and the group.

3. For a group composed of members from several churches:

- a. The group must have authorization from the Office of Social Affairs.
- b. Each member of the committee for the group must present his identification.
(eg: national identification card, passport)
- c. The group must have a local address where they can be found at any time.

We do not accept a photocopy of identification. You must come with the original!
